After School	Additional Homework will not usually be set, and the homework timetable has been suspended for this period of lockdown. However, your teacher will make it clear to you if a piece of work needs to be completed before your next lesson, or whether additional independent study is required. Please endeavour to do this, however, if you are struggling to keep up, please let your class teacher know, in the first instance. You need to make sure you take some daily exercise, have some time away from the screen, make sure you are well rested and maintain a healthy work/life balance, so please do not undertake too much additional work after school.
